

Awards for Achievement

Valedictorian and Salutatorian

A student must attend Waverly High School their junior and senior year to receive valedictorian and salutatorian consideration.

The student having maintained the highest grade point average during the student's four years in high school shall be recognized as the valedictorian of the student's graduating class.

The student having maintained the second highest grade point average during the student's four years in high school shall be recognized as salutatorian of the student's graduating class.